

RICHARD (DICK) LEHMAN
GS-18

Mr. Lehman is 52 years old and has 27 years service in CIA. Mr. Lehman graduated from Harvard with an AB in mathematics in 1943, served in the US Army as an infantry officer from 1943 to 1946, and received an MA in foreign affairs from the University of Virginia in 1948. He joined CIA as a junior analyst on Soviet affairs in 1949 and was in the original cadre for OCI when it was formed in 1951. He served in OCI until 1975 [REDACTED]

STAT
SIAI

Mr. Lehman specialized in Soviet affairs until 1958-1959, when he became increasingly involved in CIA's current intelligence support to the President. In this capacity he was the staff officer responsible for the establishment of the President's Daily Brief in 1961. As Special Assistant to the D/OCI from 1962 to 1966, he had staff responsibility for organization of the CIA Operations Center. He became Deputy Director of OCI in 1966 and Director in 1970, for which service he was awarded the Distinguished Intelligence Medal.

In 1975 Mr. Lehman was reassigned as Director of Strategic Research, but never served in that capacity. After carrying out several special tasks for the Director of Central Intelligence, he was assigned as Deputy to the DCI for National Intelligence Officers in May 1976.